

55 Armagh Parade, Thirroul, NSW 2515

Sold House

Wednesday, 28 February 2024

55 Armagh Parade, Thirroul, NSW 2515

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 911 m2

Type: House

Andrew Hedley
0242115811

Kane Downie
0409969032

$1,580,000

Perched privately back from the street creating mesmerising views to Sandon Point and beyond, this lovely home on 911sqm will cater for the lifestyle you've been desiring. A flexible floor plan offers a teenagers retreat or self contained living, whilst the pool and visiting wildlife makes this home a true retreat.- Enjoy watching the whale migration with the waves wrapping around Sandon Point as the backdrop- Relax in the semi open plan living/dining with beautiful sea views and easy flow to the back deck- The kitchen has plenty of cupboards, stainless steel appliances and enjoys a lovely garden outlook- Entertaining will be a pleasure with bbqs on the deck and kids playing happily in the yard- Wake up to gorgeous ocean sunrises from both front bedrooms- Bedroom three has a leafy outlook over the attractive dwarf Japanese Maple- The main bathroom is fresh and beachy and has a separate shower and bath- Abundance of visiting wildlife includes wallabies, echidnas, sheep, deer and birdlife- Beautiful in-ground salt water chlorinated pool with solar heating- Elevated space in the garden for pod studio which would have amazing ocean views- Downstairs is a fabulous teenagers retreat or rumpus with bathroom and wine cellar- Large double garage ideal for the pride and joy and workshop- Heating and cooling are taken care of with multiple gas points and ceiling fans