This gorgeous three bed one bath renovated home is ready for a family to move in and just enjoy. With the internal laundry taken out of the equation the spacious open plan area is impressive. The stylish well thought out kitchen has extra dining area with formal area adjacent for entertaining. Fully air conditioned, this home will be the perfect retreat in the summer months to come. The bedrooms have built-in wardrobes to two with mirror doors and carpet flooring to the main for that finishing touch. The bathroom has a shower over the plunge bath, white vanity unit and mirror beside. Easy care flooring completes this area. Carpeted living area and to both hallways giving that luxury feel with excellent vinyl flooring to the remainder. The care and attention shown inside the home has been carried through to the beautiful outdoors. Stepping outside the impressive deck area needs to be seen to be appreciated. Boasting colorbond fencing to the backyard and to both sides of the home privacy is a given. Excellent access for guests from the front yard through the side gate to the deck makes entertaining easy. The large shed houses the immaculate laundry area while providing excellent storage and car accommodation with extra carport and parking area to the side of the home. A large rainwater tank to the back of the dlug helps with water costs. The large 810 sq m freehold block complements this home to perfection.
