Set back from the street, this delightful abode offers peace and privacy in a vibrant location. With bold street appeal this secure home is completely renovated and ready for you to move straight into. There are endless opportunities here on this 417 square metre Survey-Strata landholding that allows for future development potential. A sensational elevated site where two potential lots can be created when the time arises. Offering luscious gardens and open plan living, this property effortlessly flows from inside-out. It's a bright and airy home that is filled with natural light and an abundance of greenery throughout the landscaped gardens. The rear courtyard falls as the backdrop from the kitchen and accessed through wall-length sliders off the comfortable living. With striking timber flooring through the living areas and quality window treatments throughout, this property has been finished with attention-to-detail in mind. Both bedrooms are finished with lush carpets and the generous Master benefits with ample built-in storage. There is a double automatic garage, secure gate access and plenty of external storage. Feel the comfort all year round with reverse-cycle air-conditioning in the living and both bedrooms. The Numbers Council $1,693.87 approx. Water $1,065.91 approx.
