This newly renovated home has been designed and styled with a modern edge & flare. Situated at the front of a battle-axe block, this property has been renovated to maximise space and functionality. Featuring three bedrooms with built-in cupboards and an additional room that can be used to suit any needs such as an office or a nursery. The property features a large, open dining kitchen space that includes all the modern fittings such as a dishwasher and electric cooking appliances. The property also includes a separate lounge room that flows off the kitchen/dining room. The main bathroom has been renovated to create free flowing space to include a bath and open shower space. The second bathroom is off the large laundry, perfect for the days returning from the beach. It also has a remote double lock up garage with additional storage space at the rear. Fully fenced front and backyard with covered patio at rear. Pets are considered upon application and the dining table has been built in and can't be removed – the chairs can be added as an inclusion alsoPlease ensure to register your attendance to any scheduled inspection via the listed properties advertising
