This exceptional, 3 bedroom Victorian house has been thoughtfully updated and is able to offer you the very best of both worlds - the space and charm of yesteryear combined with all of the "state-of-the-art" facilities so essential for that busy lifestyle! Quietly located in a picturesque tree-lined street, this residence features:- Polished timber floorboards throughout- Stunning kitchen with stainless steel gas appliances and a pantry- Sky-lit bathroom with separate bath/shower and double basin- Built-in wardrobes in all bedrooms- Living room which opens onto a undercover deck and a serene courtyardThere is also an internal laundry, attic storage via pull down ladder, ample sub-deck storage, shed, workshop and a carport. Whilst this property has been thoughtfully updated to cater for your every need, it has also retained some timeless period features which include marble fireplaces, high ceilings, ornate cornices and stained glass windows . If that weren't enough, the property is centrally located in a wide tree-lined street, close to public transport, private and public schools as well as Newtown eclectic mix of cafes, restaurants and shops. An outstanding offering for the discerning resident.
