A premier position with never-to-be-built-out ocean views across the Pacific, rarely does a home on a north-facing, sun-drenched block arise. This incredible freestanding family home presents an outstanding opportunity for owners who want to move in and capitalize on and create something truly spectacular (STCA). The world is your oyster with this wonderful property. Residing on a large 581sqm landholding and elevated in its position; enjoy those ocean views and whisper quiet coastal vibes right in the heart of one of Forster's best beachside locations. Within a very short stroll, your feet will be in the sand at your new local beach; to the left you have the sand dunes and a dog-friendly stretch of sand, and to the right a quiet and serene playground with BBQ facilities and a funky little café at Cape Hawke Surf Club, perfect for your morning brew after a beachside stroll. This property couldn't be more perfect for the whole family, fur included, to enjoy a beautiful life. The property has been lovingly maintained and spans two levels. You are within walking distance to the golf course, and conveniently located just moments from all amenities. Enjoy serenity in abundance perched high amidst the treetops and welcoming streams of natural light and coastal breezes. A treasured character home that is ready to live in, the current layout provides an excellent foundation for redesign, or the purchaser may wish to start again to create their dream home (STCA). Features include:- Rare north facing 581sqm block with spectacular ocean views- A coveted street location ensuring privacy and tranquility are at the forefront- Spacious and flexible interiors with a living, kitchen, dining and rumpus room- The kitchen creates a warm and inviting space, with plenty of storage included, as well as an inbuilt wall oven, dishwasher and electric cooktop- Versatile floor plan with four large bedrooms and room for a home office- Plenty of storage throughout with a double lock up garage and workshop area- Walking distance from Forster Golf Course and One Mile Beach Become one of the fortunate few to enjoy this enviable position, with the pounding surf and ocean coastline just a stone's throw from your doorstep.
