Looking out over majestic farmland towards the magnificent foothills of Mount Baw Baw and the Great Dividing Range, 55 Varney Crescent Traralgon East will be sure to impress the buyer that wants a property with practicality, a relaxing ambiance and peace and quiet. This large five bedroom home features two ensuites, a third family bathroom, formal living, informal living, formal dining and a billiard room. The gourmet kitchen is located centrally in the home and features some new appliances. The northern aspect of this ranch style home allows the warming winter sun to filter through to every living zone and almost every bedroom. Apart from being an amazing home on the inside, outside is just as impressive. Featuring a large inground pool with solar heating, outdoor undercover entertaining area, double carport and a huge 9x12m shed that has drive through height clearance for your horse float/boat/caravan. For the horse fancier, there are several good paddocks with water, hay storage and a horse arena. Inspections will not disappoint, contact James Hourigan on 0418 246 671.
