Beautifully transformed, this stunning split-level residence delivers effortless modern living. Screened for privacy by gorgeous gardens and with a sparkling swimming pool, the expansive property is the perfect family oasis. Within walking distance from Metro transport and a short drive to Castle Towers, it provides both convenience and lifestyle. Showcasing quality finishes throughout, this property presents an exceptional opportunity to simply move in and enjoy. Designed for relaxation and comfort, the home is positioned to capture its tranquil leafy aspect. High cathedral-style ceilings and clever glazing fill the stylish interior with natural light. A gas fireplace with stone surrounds keeps the front lounge cosy during winter, while louvre windows in the spacious family room provide a cool breeze in summer. The sleek galley kitchen features a black sink, European stainless steel appliances and excellent pantry storage. It also includes a built-in breakfast bar and a servery window for easy entertaining. Framed by mature hedging, the sprawling yard is a bonus for families and pet lovers. There is an abundance of space for youngsters to run and play. The travertine terrace, overlooking the sun-drenched glass-fenced pool, is an idyllic space to share a meal with friends and family. An elevated hardwood deck provides another space to unwind and soak up the serene surroundings. The generously sized master retreat is located in a separate wing with views across the pool and garden. It also features built-in wardrobes and a luxe ensuite including a shower with a rainwater feature. The other bedrooms are fitted with built-in wardrobes and contemporary wood inspired flooring. In addition, there is a separate study and storage/play area. The tandem carport provides easy access indoors. Immaculately presented, this dream home will allow its new owners to embrace the very best of Hills living. It is a peaceful haven within proximity to the vibrancy of Castle Hill and Norwest with an array of restaurants, café and retailers. Close to popular schools and parklands, this property is not one to miss. - Split-level family contemporary home on 975sqm corner block - Flexible multi-zoned living and dining areas, spacious family rumpus - Seamless outdoor flow to covered alfresco terrace with ceiling fan - Renovated bathrooms, updated laundry, ducted air-conditioning, - Zoned for Excelsior Public School and Crestwood High School - Choice of nearby private schools, walk to parklands and nearby buses - Walk to Showground Metro (1.2km), a short drive to Castle Towers (2.8km) - Easy access to M2/M7, less than five minutes to Norwest Business Park
