EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST

A rare opportunity to own a distinguished winery steeped in history and nestled in the heart of the esteemed Willyabrup region of Margaret River. Established in 1976, this pioneering family-owned and operated vineyard stands as a testament to generations of dedication, passion, and excellence in winemaking. Willespie Wines invites you to enter the enchanting world of viticulture, where every bottle tells a story of tradition and terroir. Set against the picturesque backdrop of gently undulating hills and lush vineyards, this estate presents huge potential and a myriad of opportunities. The winery/cellar door offer stunning vistas as does the charming stone and timber four-bedroom home. Imagine waking up each morning to breathtaking views across the valley, the tranquil scenery providing a serene start to your day. The cellar door and winery are constructed primarily from local Jarrah hardwood and stone, creating a sense of rustic charm and perfectly complementing the rich heritage of the property. The home's architecture also harmonizes with the natural beauty of its surroundings, offering a warm and inviting retreat after a day spent among the vines. As one of Margaret River's original vineyards, Willespie Wines has played a role in the region's prestigious wine industry for nearly 50 years. Owning this vineyard is not just an investment in a business, but a chance to become part of a storied legacy. This is a unique opportunity to continue the tradition of excellence and innovation that the region is renowned for. Embrace the lifestyle in one of Australia's most celebrated wine regions. With its rich history, stunning views, and well-established reputation, Willespie Wines is more than a property; it's an invitation to become a guardian of a legacy and a steward of the land. Don't miss this extraordinary chance to own a piece of Margaret River's heritage. For further information, or to arrange a private inspection, call Kingsley Edwards on 0412 90 90 22
