Creative floorplans maximise space and views, where décor is both classic and cosmopolitan. Open and airy kitchens come complete with Bosch appliances, reconstituted stone benchtops and a breakfast bar to facilitate casual dining. Oversized master bedrooms and lush carpets provide a sense of indulgence, which continues through to well-appointed bathrooms. Residents of Sutherland Residences want more than just a place to live. They want a place to engage and connect with the city. Sutherland Residences delivers this lifestyle, reimagined. A wide range of dining options are only a walk away, including Brisbane's famous Eat Street Markets - where hundreds of food and entertainment vendors bring the foreshore to life every weekend. For something in between, the Dendy cinema is also a walk away, together with a handful of retail, dining, café and bar options. In addition to this eclectic hub and the exclusive residential amenity of The Hamilton, everything Queensland's stunning 'river city' has to offer is right on hand. Sutherland Residences is only 6kms to Brisbane CBD, and 9kms to Brisbane Domestic and International Airports.
