Rarely does such a premium commercial space become available in Tocumwal. With a fantastic location, this property presents a superb opportunity to add to or begin your commercial investment portfolio. The internal space is approx. 180M2 and was long tenanted by the NAB, but is now available to occupy or invest. Fully ducted A/C along with male and female bathrooms. It is in great condition throughout with wall to ceiling secure glass frontage. With a prominent main street location this property offers the astute purchaser the opportunity to purchase a low risk investment in a very prime central Tocumwal main street location.
