Located in a terrific residential location this single level Victorian home offers an abundance of space, style and serenity. With further potential to improve & enhance - the home is well laid out with a practical floorplan and has been partially updated recently with a suite of new European appliances and fixtures affording modern convenience and ease. Internally the home offers two good sized bedrooms, each rich in period detail and encompassing original fireplaces and BIR, a large central bathroom with separate bath and shower, formal and informal living zones encompassing a modern kitchen meals area, as well as a rear 3rd bedroom/study/home office. On a generous block the home has a deep courtyard area with rear shed for storage and space purposes. Moments from Smith, Gertrude & Brunswick Streets this home is close to all the epicurean and lifestyle delights that make inner city living so desirable.
