This house boasts an exceptional location, situated on a corner with breathtaking views extending down the street to the serene parklands and waters of Pumicestone Passage. The spacious front balcony, accessible from the lounge and separate dining room, provides ample cover and a perfect vantage point to enjoy the vista. Additionally, a back undercover patio overlooks well maintained gardens. The generous kitchen includes an area for informal dining, complemented by large bedrooms equipped with ceiling fans. A second shower and toilet are conveniently located in the laundry. The property features a sizable lounge with air conditioning and security screens throughout. The double garage offers internal access, supplemented by an additional carport on the side. The roof has recently been painted and restored and equipped with solar for your convince and the fully fenced yard is enhanced by vegetable gardens and a shed, completing this enticing package.
