This 5 bedroom home is a functional and surprising home situated only 600m from the main street of Town and close to parks, sporting fields, schools and local pool. The home offers a well fenced yard with large double garage plus workshop and large entertaining area that overlooks the well maintained yard. Inside the home you have a lovely east facing sitting room with wood fire that leads to the first living area with study set to the side. The two bedrooms and the main bathroom are on the southern side of the home and flow to the laundry room and down to another bedroom and around to the larger second living area that looks over the backyard. The kitchen is centrally located in the home between the two living area and is finished by the walk in pantry. Upstairs is the main bedroom with walk in robe and ensuite as well as another bedroom. This home is more than meets the eye and is a property that must be inspected.
