

56 Hambridge Road, Bargo, NSW 2574

Sold House

Wednesday, 20 September 2023

56 Hambridge Road, Bargo, NSW 2574

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Area: 926 m²

Type: House

$875,000

Nestled in the picturesque town of Bargo on an expansive 926sqm block with an inviting inground pool and the convenience of side access, this home embodies a serene suburban setting and relaxed living. A superior, free-flowing floorplan seamlessly blends functionality and practicality with two separate living areas and a dining room that is thoughtfully positioned just off the kitchen which provides a central hub for family gatherings and meals. The kitchen boasts an island bench with seating space, a gas cooktop, oven and dishwasher. Boasting four generously sized bedrooms, built-in wardrobes and two bathrooms, this home is an ideal haven for families seeking room to grow. The true highlight lies outdoors, with the inclusion of an undercover, enclosed pergola. This outdoor oasis serves as an extension of your living space, allowing for year-round alfresco dining and entertaining with the addition of the superb inground pool perfect for those hot summer days. You will further find a host of notables inclusive of solar panels, outdoor woodfire pizza oven, split system air conditioning, ceiling fans, linen press, internal laundry plus much more! With a combination of modern amenities, 56 Hambridge Road offers a perfect blend of space, comfort, and convenience. Contact Meryl LaMacchia today and discover the endless possibilities that await in this Bargo gem.  We have, in preparing this document, used our best endeavours to ensure that the information contained herein is true and accurate to the best of our knowledge. Prospective purchasers should make their own enquiries to verify the above information.