New to the market in the very popular beach destination of Lulworth, now is your chance to purchase this tightly held large house, which is a short stroll to the water front and has ocean views from the top balcony and lounge. This house is truly fantastic and a party hosting paradise, with a large open plan lounge space which flows through to the top deck, which has windows all around it, so you are able to use it whatever the weather decides to throw at you and outside you have another paved area, which has shade cloths that wind out and give you a large shaded area if you were to have the whole family around. This property has been used as a family shack and has hosted the whole extended family on several occasions and with an in built, wheel chair ready, elevator at the back you can even have great granny around too. With spacious rooms plenty of storage, a garage and heaps of living space this property could also be your coastal home full time. Make your coastal dream become a reality and call Peter Lees real estate today for your private tour.*Peter Lees Real Estate has used a variety of sources to obtain information relating to this property.
