Nestled in the heart of Dunoon Village this property is bright and beautiful. The home has a warm and welcoming feel with charming timber fretwork and ornate windows. The high ceilings throughout the open plan living, dining and kitchen area provide an air of spaciousness and the kitchen features timber French doors opening on to the deck making entertaining a breeze on the large covered veranda - which has a North Easterly aspect so there is always a breezy and sunny spot to enjoy. Get cozy during the winter months with the warming wood heater and the air conditioning will ensure comfort all year round. The internal areas of the home have recently been repainted throughout, all three bedrooms are extremely spacious and the easy floorplan makes for happy effortless living. Located in the lush hinterland of the Northern Rivers the village of Dunoon is a quiet place with a strong community spirit enjoying facilities such as a general store/bottle shop, post office, sports club, community hall and primary school. Located just 20 minutes to Lismore City, 45 minutes to Byron Bay and just over an hour to Gold Coast Airport, the home relishes the village lifestyle close to city conveniences.
