FOR SALE

A modern masterpiece crafted without compromise, this exceptional architecturally designed property redefines luxury living, as it boasts its designs, layout, and interiors executed in collaboration with Carmela Cule of Studio Cii Ci. Spanning two light filled levels connected by a stunning European Oak staircase with customised forged iron handrail, this residence boasts a versatile floorplan promising a peaceful haven for your family. Positioned on one of Corinda's sought after tree-lined streets, this stunning home delivers an indulgent way of life with all conveniences a short walk or drive from your door. A myriad of quality features including Italian marble exude opulence throughout. Custom joinery in cool contemporary tones are complemented by Passio nickel cabinetry hardware. Beautiful limestone floor tiles flow from indoors to out and soft hued oak herringbone flooring features on the upper level where an exquisite master retreat beckons. Discover a swoonworthy culinary zone, sure to inspire the creation of epicurean delights. A fabulous butler's pantry complements the superbly appointed chef's kitchen where a Smeg 900mm Classic freestanding cooker is supported by a suite of high end appliances. Host your guests outdoors where a covered alfresco area with glazed handmade clay tiles and uniquely designed BBQ resides alongside a sparkling inground pool. Sit back and relax here as you entertain or gather round the fire pit on cooler nights to come.
