AUCTION

An affordable opportunity has presented itself to the ever-growing township of Lismore. This 2 bedroom dwelling is an opportunity for those looking for a project to bring it back to its former glory or perhaps someone will take advantage of the spacious 978 m² (approx) block and build their dream family home or investment property (STCA). There is plenty of options and big opportunity for a savvy purchaser to realise the potential that lies here. Lismore has seen a huge amount of people move in and call this warm township home over the past couple of years because it's centrally located on the Hamilton Highway to cities such as Geelong, Ballarat, Hamilton and Warrnambool. Still, you also get that highly sought-after quiet country town feel and friendly community environment. For sale by Public Auction on Saturday, 20th January at 12:30 pm On-site.
