Placed among a peaceful, one way avenue lined with colourful foliage and heritage homes, this exceedingly spacious inner city gem offers a peaceful parkside retreat in an exclusive Burnley enclave. Graced with soaring ceilings and sublime coverage of passive light, a serene and stylish interior enjoys an ambiance of airy refinement, with a stunning entrance void creating an instant impression. Adorned with ample soft close cabinetry, waterfall stone benchtops, and class leading Miele appliances, a stellar kitchen is flanked by considerable living and dining settings, merging effortlessly with a relaxing, easily kept entertainer's yard. Inherently versatile, a bright lower bedroom doubles as a first rate home office, while a sizeable upper guest room complements a sumptuous master with walk in robe, private balcony, and elegant semi ensuite. Other highlights include an in vogue downstairs bathroom, open laundry, driveway space, plentiful storage, and reverse cycle heating/cooling. Seconds from the quiet expanses of Bicentennial Park and renowned Serotonin Eatery beyond, while metres from Burnley Golf Course, Station, and Park, vibrant Swan Street, Yarra trails, and CityLink.
