Expressions of Interest

Nestled up high in the Gold Coast Hinterland, this double brick home is beautifully presented with warm timber floors, high raked ceilings and wide verandas to capture serene hinterland and ocean views. Located in the prestigious Chesterfield Ridge area, only 10 minutes from Local shops and approx. 15 minutes from Robina CBD, this private and tranquil retreat is perfect for a family looking for room to spread out. Features 4 spacious bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, large master with walk in robe, open plan lounge & dining upstairs, internal access to a separate rumpus room downstairs, solid timber kitchen with timber bench tops and stainless-steel appliances. From the beautiful timber sash windows to the exposed brick and the slow combustion fireplace, this home oozes character and will make for a comfortable place to warm up during winter. In summer, the elevation and north-easterly facing aspect will guarantee cool ocean breezes. There is an option to use the lower level as a self-contained flat as it has its own bathroom, bedroom & living area. Also, hidden away on the property is a cabin retreat. Add some finishing touches to the cabin and you will have a great office/studio amongst nature. This 3.61 hectare property has enough cleared land for a large shed, granny flat, pool and even a horse or two. With the Gold Coast city growing so fast, large acreage blocks like this offer a great opportunity for families to escape the rat race and settle in a peaceful and tranquil location with the convenience of being close to shops, schools and beaches. Complete with air conditioning, insulation, high ceilings, large water tank, this property may be the ideal Hinterland escape for your family. Inspect to experience the serenity & lifestyle this location offers.
