Wilston is just 4kms from the CBD and is regarded as one of Brisbane's most respected family-friendly suburbs. At its heart is a quaint retail precinct with an array of eateries and cafes to dine out or meet up with friends. It's an easy walk to bus stops and Wilston Station to travel to the city. Windsor Homezone, Newmarket Village, Wilston State and St Columba's Primary schools are nearby, while Vale Street falls in the Kelvin Grove State College catchment.
