Kaye Charles Real Estate are proud to present to market a truly unique opportunity to secure one of the regions original cottages, circa early "1900's", restored to impeccable standards. This pristine property belongs to Beaconsfield's beloved "Wooden Cottage Precinct," consisting of five weatherboard homes, all built in approximately 1910. Steeped in history, the home boasts two bedrooms, multiple living rooms, two bathrooms and gardens, landscaped to perfection. The home is defined by a yesteryear charm that's irreplicable...featuring antique light fittings, extensive fret work, double hung windows and pot bellies throughout. A newly appointed wing flaunts a study/nursery and master suite serviced by a fully tiled en suite flawlessly styled, with brass tapware, stone vanity and sky light. A lounge/sitting room is a cosy space complete with electric heater. The newly renovated, fully equipped kitchen features stone bench tops and pressed metal splash back in keeping with the period. A family room, featuring vaulted ceilings creates a feeling of space and character. Formal dining room is a versatile space that can serve as a home office. Features electric ducted heating/cooling, split system heating/cooling, security system with cameras, new roof, hand made fret work, built in BBQ hooked up to mains gas and canvas blinds. Outdoor living is in keeping with the century old charm indoors offers, boasting an enclosed entertaining area overlooking beautifully landscaped gardens, comprised of perfectly manicured hedges and botanic like species. A double, remote garage is accessed via a private lane way. The enviable location offers a lifestyle of ultimate convenience, within an easy, flat walk to the train station, Beaconsfield Village, medical, schooling and all amenities.
