Welcome to this charming full brick family home, lovingly held by the same family for 52 years. This property is a true time capsule, rich in history and brimming with potential for those looking to create their dream home in the sought after Blakehurst locale. With its original condition and multiple living areas, this home offers a great scope for renovation and personalization. Whether you are looking to restore its vintage charm or modernize it with contemporary updates, this property is a blank canvas waiting for your vision. The home boasts spacious living areas spread across two levels. Upon entering, you are greeted by a separate living and dining area on the entrance floor, perfect for entertaining. The original kitchen is ready for a full makeover, with an eat-in design that opens onto the backyard, making it a cozy spot for family. Additionally, the upstairs level also boasts a fully equipped kitchen providing a great opportunity for multi family living. The property offers five bedrooms, with two located downstairs to accommodate in-laws or guests comfortably. The sunlit front-facing bedroom upstairs creates a warm and inviting atmosphere, and all bedrooms are well-situated to maximize comfort and privacy. There are two main bathrooms, each well appointed to the bedrooms on each level, with a third bathroom doubling as an oversized laundry. The backyard is a level, low-maintenance space perfect for outdoor activities and gatherings. A small patio opens onto the grassed area, providing a private oasis for relaxation. Positioned conveniently, this home is close to local shops, Carss Park, bus stops and transport routes and only walking distance to Blakehurst Public School, Blakehurst High School and Mater Dei Primary School which makes it an ideal choice for families. Additional features include plenty of storage, a double lock-up garage, split system air conditioning upstairs and security alarm system. This versatile and charming home is a rare find. With its rich history, immense potential, and superb location, it's ready for a new family to make their mark and create lasting memories.
