A true piece of prime real estate located in the ever popular Gloucester, has made itself available for sale. Built in the 70's this is the first time it has become available for sale. Sitting on a rarely seen 5,395m² parcel of land on the eastern outskirts of town, this magnificent property boasts many great development opportunities. Zoned R2-Low Density Residential, there are a world of possibilities as to what you can transform this property into! The position on the edge of town, opposite the Medical Center and the Gloucester Train Station is convenient, prominent and provides endless opportunity to the astute investor or developer.
