The stress we all have with rates rising and the affordability to try get into the market is at its worst in twelve years! But there is some light on the horizon with this new property that's hit the market! Not only is the price right, its in the sort after area of Glenwood on the fringe of the Sunshine Coast and Fraser Coast. Where it's all about lifestyle, space, fresh air and room for the family to enjoy! This three bedroom home nestled on 5299 m2 makes the perfect buy for the family with payments cheaper than renting in today's market! Fenced and gated and set up high on a corner block, this 1950's era home is set on steel stumps with downstairs laundry and toilet, with plenty of room for storage. There's a large carport for car accommodation, 2 x 5000gl water tanks and trenched septic system with no quarterly servicing fees. Upstairs boasts its era with hardwood floors throughout and combined Lounge/Dining Room. The kitchen is of era décor and with a bit of TLC could become a feature of your new home. Large master bedroom with built ins. Bedroom 2-3 are large enough for the kiddies and the bedroom furniture. Bathroom with shower over bath, and linen storage. This property does offer opportunity for those who like to renovate or re-create! The price is right and the options are plenty. Glenwood is situated close to Gympie and offers great family lifestyle with plenty of activities for the family and that thing we all strive to have! Open spaces, clean country air and the joys of living in a location that's got it all at its footstep. Call Karen (0439 767 828) or Tim (0436 005 293) for your private inspection today. N.B.
