

57 Greenoaks Avenue, Bradbury, NSW 2560

Sold House

Friday, 8 March 2024

57 Greenoaks Avenue, Bradbury, NSW 2560

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 556 m²

Type: House

Nick Constantine
0246280033

Alex Jahshan
0246405053

$935,000

Nestled in the warm embrace of the leafy suburb of Bradbury, this huge 4-bedroom home pairs classic charm with modern functionality. Step inside and feel the welcoming ambiance of spacious living areas bathed in natural light, leading you through the formal dining and family room to an expansive covered entertaining area for those cherished family gatherings. • Sleek, modern kitchen offering ample cupboard and bench space with quality appliances and including a meals area • Large, well-appointed bedrooms, each with Built in robes and providing a personal haven of relaxation • Main bedroom is massive and features an ensuite and walk through robes. • Large lounge room filled with natural light and access to the front verandah, perfect for that morning coffee or pleasant afternoon tea. • Formal dining room which could also be used as the kids toy room • Separate large family room for enjoying watching the television • Fully covered outdoor entertaining area overlooking the back yard, ideal for tranquil alfresco dining • Underneath has double garage along with plenty of storage or workshop • 850 metres to Bradbury Shopping Centre for all your daily needs and even less to the Public school The size of this house will amaze you. Ideal for the larger or growing family. This property will be launched on Saturday 16th March at 11.00am