

57 Osborne Road, Burradoo, NSW 2576

House For Sale

Friday, 2 February 2024

57 Osborne Road, Burradoo, NSW 2576

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 4000 m2

Type: House

Kate McCullagh
0411411244

Ana Calvert
0458628948

Forthcoming Auction - Contact Agent

A wonderful opportunity to acquire a well-equipped Burradoo property set on an acre* of verdant and private park-like gardens and established trees. Peacefully set well back from the road this solid brick master-built home has been meticulously cared for over the years. With the properties desirable address and sought-after position the home is ready to move on in, there's also scope to add further value, add your own stamp and create your dream home. The single level floorplan is well laid out, there are two living areas as well as formal and informal dining spaces. The renovated and sundrenched kitchen features European appliances, stone benchtops and a sizeable walk-in pantry all with a lovely outlook to the gardens and lawns. A welcoming and well-proportioned entry foyer leads you to the formal lounge with a cosy fireplace and floor-to-ceiling windows that flood the room with natural light. A family room is located just off the open-plan kitchen, and the dining room is accessed via French doors, allowing for privacy and peace. The master bedroom overlooks the garden; there is a generous ensuite, dressing area, and walk-in robe. There are two other large bedrooms with built-in robes, which are serviced by the family bathroom. The property sits within mature landscaped gardens with well-maintained lawns and specimen trees. With plenty of room to kick a ball, play backyard cricket or realise your dream of the good life with chickens and a veggie patch. There's even room for a court and a pool should you so desire. Close to renown schools, including Oxley College, Chevalier College (only moments away), Tudor House and Frensham School. Bowral town centre is minutes away with its array of cosmopolitan shops, restaurants and cafes, the property will be sure to appeal to a broad cross section of astute buyers. - Double garage with internal access - Central heating - Gas fireplace - Master built - Due north aspect - Huge laundry/mudroom - Ample storage - Paved alfresco areas - Mature trees and shrubs - Garden shed For more information on this property please contact Kate McCullagh on 0411 411 244 or Ana Calvert on 0458 628 948.