Nestled in a tranquil, leafy haven with enchanting views overlooking the lush fairways of the neighboring Box Hill Golf Club, this impeccably renovated home offers a serene escape and an exceptional setting for outdoor entertainment. Experience the modern sophistication of the lounge area, complete with an inviting open fireplace. This space seamlessly flows into the dining area, both bathed in the natural beauty of the meticulously landscaped front garden, discreetly shielded by a tall fence to ensure unrivalled privacy. The kitchen dazzles with its pristine white finishes and cabinetry, a testament to the elegance of Caesarstone. Equipped with high-quality Omega appliances and featuring a cozy meals section, it's the heart of the home. Venture outside to the expansive under-cover deck for year-round enjoyment, where a child-friendly yard is enhanced by the breathtaking backdrop of the golf course. This home shines with polished floorboards throughout, includes three spacious bedrooms, a modern bathroom, ducted heating, a split system air-conditioner, a carport, and a secure double garage accessible via automatic gates. Positioned in an ideal location for families, it's a stone's throw from prestigious schools such as Presbyterian Ladies College and Kingswood College, close to Mount Scopus, Deakin University, Box Hill Central, and Burwood One Shopping Centre. The property is also zoned for the highly renowned Box Hill School district. Photo ID required at all open for inspections.
