Tightly held in the same family since its beginning, number 57 School, Road can only be described as an 'inspirational oasis'. Painstakingly crafted by its very proud original owners over several decades, it is being reluctantly offered to the market for the very first time. Immersed in some 5 hectares (12 acres) of stunning natural bushland setting, the property captures the true essence of quintessential Hills living. With unlimited versatility, the property is graced with two separate residences allowing for multi-generational living. The main residence being a grand affair, a character filled homestead in harmony with its natural surrounds and sporting lashings of timber throughout together with a romantic open fireplace for those wintry nights. Complimenting this majestic residence is the separate cottage sitting proudly in its lush surrounds. Further enhancing this superb property is the dedicated artists studio retreat providing endless inspiration. Representing an incredible opportunity to acquire a beautiful property in an iconic orchard precinct, number 57 School Road will most certainly impress.
