

57 Victoria Street, Adamstown, NSW 2289

Sold House

Thursday, 7 March 2024

57 Victoria Street, Adamstown, NSW 2289

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

Area: 212 m2

Type: House

David McCosker

Craig Andriessen
0412323444

$680,000

Nestled in the heart of Adamstown, this charming 3-bedroom cottage-style home offers a unique opportunity for those with a vision for restoration or a dream of building anew. In need of some tender care and repair, this residence presents an ideal canvas for renovation enthusiasts or those seeking a knock-down-rebuild project. The cottage's classic design exudes character, with its three well-proportioned bedrooms providing a solid foundation for a comfortable family home. While restoration awaits, the potential to reimagine and revitalize this property is boundless. Its central location is a standout feature, placing you in close proximity to the vibrant hub of Westfield Kotara and the sun-soaked shores of Merewether Beach. This convenience ensures a lifestyle that seamlessly combines retail therapy with coastal bliss. Whether you envision restoring the charm of yesteryear or embarking on a contemporary rebuild, this property in Adamstown presents a canvas for your dreams. Seize the opportunity to transform this cottage into a personalized haven, where the best of Adamstown and its surroundings are at your doorstep. Contact us now to explore the potential and make this property your own.