Tucked away behind security gates on a very private 1.54ha (almost 4 acre) lot offering views across the valleys to the Western Ranges, stands this two-storey quality built residence, featuring soaring ceilings and spacious living areas. Built in 1988 to a standard not a price, a bit dated and in need of some TLC, this property offers the ideal mountain hideaway from the hustle and bustle of city living for you and your family. Many extra features include;- Separate small alpine cottage/retreat- Free standing sauna room in garden setting- Meditation gazebo on water tank- Beautifully engineered bridge over natural ravine- Three large rainwater tanks- Good bore- Large chook run- Two beehives- Fruit trees- Large 3-bay garage with adjoining carports. If you have a desire to live the good life and potential to be self-sufficient, and can see beyond the work required to make it shine, then this may be the dream property you have been searching for, if only subconsciously. Interested, call Barry to see if it is still available!
