This quaint 3 bedroom cottage on a gently undulating block of over 2 acres represents a great opportunity for buyers to obtain a house on a larger parcel of land. The home has had a new kitchen which just needs the finishing touches. There are ongoing renovations that also need finishing off and plenty of scope to put in your own touches to personalise. There has been newly laid vinyl tiles in the living areas and the bedrooms have the original timber floors. With an open plan kitchen, dining and lounge area the home is easily heated with a woodfire including cooking oven. There are three good sized bedrooms with views out to the surrounding countryside. The bathroom is waiting for a makeover but functional. Providing a great opportunity to enter the market and have that land you have always wanted this property has endless potential.
