Nestled on a sprawling 2-hectare estate this picturesque three bedroom home has weathered the challenges of nature. A recent flood may have left its mark, but within these walls lies the potential for a stunning revival. The residence, surrounded by lush greenery, offers a canvas for transformation and restoration, imagine waking up to the soothing sounds of nature, as you work to reclaim this haven. With three bedrooms, multiple living areas and a large covered rear deck, this property invites you to turn adversity into an opportunity for a new beginning. The property benefits from additional shedding, new fencing around the whole property, under ground irrigation mains plus the added bonus a 2kw solar system. The best part is, this property is just minutes away from Lismore, providing you with easy access to all the amenities, shopping, and dining options you desire.
