An affordable residential two-storey townhouse, spanning 133 square metres, has undergone recent renovations. On offer a sleek and stylish abode with no rear neighbour and a lovely outdoor aspect. This spacious apartment is selling fully furnished and enjoys a very liveable layout with wainscoting panelling adding to the charm and ambiance. The kitchen exudes a fresh, clean appeal, boasting integrated appliances, bright modern countertops, ample space for casual dining, and chic white subway tiles, all in harmony with the Hamptons-style aesthetics. The seamless flow from the open-plan dining area to the lounge, complete with a designated study nook and concealed European-style laundry, enhances the home's functionality. A welcoming living space extends to a serene outdoor setting, providing easy access to a private, low-maintenance garden with full irrigation and a picturesque rainforest backdrop. Upstairs, both generously proportioned bedrooms feature built-in robes and their own updated bathrooms. The primary bedroom additionally treats residents to a sizable balcony overlooking the lush rainforest scenery. The new owners can indulge in a plethora of amenities, including a lagoon pool, tennis court, restaurant, and bar, all conveniently located on-site.
