With sweeping panoramic views of Brisbane's skyline 'Avondale' is the very best example of quintessential living here in Queensland. Commanding three street frontages and 1,151m² of blue-chip land with no direct neighbours, this is the largest Teneriffe landholding to come to market in recent years. High on the Eastern side of Teneriffe Hill, this substantial Federation Queenslander offers living options all year round. The north-east rear courtyard surrounded by greenery would be ideal in winter, whilst the large inviting pool reminiscent of a 'Slim Aarons' photo shoot is perfect for those beautiful summer days Queensland is renowned for. Once the sun sets over the city skyline, the large wrap around verandah is perfect for entertaining or simply unwinding. The city view is yours and yours forever, you'll never be built out in this commanding position and let me assure you, the view is better in real life! Having been lovingly maintained for over a century, 'Avondale' is a warm family home that incorporates beautifully crafted archways, fireplaces and 10ft ceilings. Upstairs you'll enjoy the master bedroom with its own ensuite and walk-in-robe. Rooms then shoot off the main corridor as does the second lounge/living room with its soothing fireplace. Downstairs accommodates lock-up car accommodation and plenty of storage space. The house would suit any family as is, however, the ability to extend the existing building footprint and add additional levels provides the rarest of opportunities to create the ultimate Teneriffe trophy home.
