Welcome to this unique entry level equine property nestled on 5.5 acres or 22,500m² of land which is fairly flat and very usable with great fencing and a huge electric gated entrance. Property is situated opposite the Albert River Winery. The house itself is compact, rendered on the outside with polished concrete floors, air-conditioning and fireplace, modern kitchen and bathroom and verandas to the front and back for entertaining. There are 3 decent sized bedrooms in the house with a spacious kitchen and living area and keyless entry to the front and back door. Outside there is a huge powered shed with another self-contained bedroom. Adjoining the shed is a large tool room and then another carport. Behind the shed is a fully self contained decked out office. The property allows for truck access and parking suitable for anyone with large machinery. Full dirt track with small jumps for motocross riding and still room for horses. Tanks supply the property with water and often never run out. This property is perfect for the family starting out or downsizing and needs to be inspected to get the full potential. Please call Sanja on 0433 359 676 for private inspection. AUCTION will be at Sheraton Mirage 25th March at 5pm.
