Generously sized and fabulously located, discover one of Burwood East's hidden gems that is this pristine family home. With Burwood One Shopping Centre, Burwood Highway trams and Eley Park within walking distance and Deakin University, Forest Hill Chase, nearby and Blackburn Station Village only a short distance away, choosing to live in this location is a wise move. Dreaming of living in such a coveted locale, you'll love the excellent sense of space inside this light and bright home, along with its manicured exterior that highlights how much love and care this home has received over the years. A desirable North-facing orientation promotes maximum daylight use in the warm and inviting lounge, which flows through to the spacious meals/kitchen area that unites the household together with its central position. Indoor-outdoor living, meanwhile, is a standout feature of the sizeable family living, equipped with its own bar to make entertaining easy whilst linking with the paved outdoor entertaining area nestled amongst the tranquillity of the picturesque backyard. Bedrooms enjoy the benefits of built-in robes, while the presence of heating and cooling, secure off-street parking and a dedicated space for caravan/trailer parking adds further appeal.
