A remarkable freestanding home that embodies spacious family living in a prime location. Nestled on the border of Maroubra and South Coogee, this substantial residence offers four generously sized bedrooms, providing abundant space for a growing family. The formal living and dining areas exude elegance and are perfectly suited for hosting gatherings and creating cherished memories. Multiple bathrooms are thoughtfully distributed throughout the home, ensuring comfort and privacy for all family members. Set on an impressive 500sqm approx parcel of land, this property boasts a level backyard, ideal for outdoor activities and potential landscaping projects. The elevated position allows for water views from the second level, adding a unique charm to the home. With a double lock-up garage offering secure parking and internal access, convenience is at your fingertips. Positioned in a highly sought-after area, the home not only offers immediate comfort and style but also presents a fantastic opportunity to add value and personalise to your taste. Embrace the lifestyle this expansive home provides and enjoy the best of both Maroubra and South Coogee with easy access to local amenities, schools, and pristine beaches.
