Trevor Grady of Tom Grady Real Estate is excited to be listing this north facing treed property with everlasting views over the well known Wahpunga valley. The property comprises of 4.06ha (10.03 acres) of rich forest timbers and a wide range of native animals which frequent the area and call this fine example of paradise their home. This wonderful nature lover's haven comes with a unique pole home which faces north and captures the views and breezes that nature provides free of charge. The timber clad home has three bedrooms, a wide open deck, perfect for taking advantage of the peace and tranquillity. The home also has polished timber floors, cathedral T&G timber ceiling, solid timber kitchen and fresh paint through out. Being highset this property has a great area underneath for carparking and even a generous size workshop if required. Being only a short 10 minute drive to the lovely township of Kin Kin , 30 minutes to Gympie and 40 minutes to Noosa, this property is positioned in the well known "Golden Triangle" of the Noosa Hinterland Real Estate property market.
