Situated in the tranquil location of Jalbarragup this 11-acre lifestyle property is a short drive from the township of Nannup. Surrounded by forest and a walk away from the Blackwood River, if you are looking for peace and quiet look no further! The home is towards the front of the block and is a neat three-bedroom, one bathroom. It has its original retro style kitchen and bathroom; the living area and bedrooms are spacious. Adding to the comfort of this home is a wood heater for those colder months. Outside is where you would spend your time on this property with plenty of room for horses, a couple of sheep or alpacas. There is a chicken pen and fruit trees. The property has a bore as well as two large rainwater tanks to service the house. Close by to the house is a large shed with a lean to and carport. This property would be a fantastic weekend getaway or tree change. With Busselton being under an hour away, the airport for fly-in-fly-out work is easily accessible. Call Alison today to inspect!
