With towering Native Gums and local birdlife as your nearest neighbours and yet just a breath from the Historic Port of Echuca could you find a more idyllic location? This property presents an opportunity to renovate and finish with your choice of fixtures and fittings, due to some minor damage. Comprising of two large bedrooms, central bathroom and European style laundry. The main kitchen and living opens out onto an excellent alfresco area. The light and bright the decked alfresco area has purpose-built blinds that can be independently operated to allow the sunshine in or shaded depending on the weather or your mood. There is excellent shedding with plenty of secure storage for boats or vans in either the undercover parking or the secure tradesmen's shed. The property would make an ideal weekend getaway retreat with an easy-care garden and lawn that are on a fully automated irrigation system that can be operated remotely. All this is just minutes' walk to the Historic Port of Echuca's cafe's and restaurant's and shopping precinct. Stripped and ready for renovation. Call today. NOTE: Internal photos of the property will be displayed online next week.
