Nestled amidst a lush garden, this charming cottage is tucked away from the main road yet conveniently close to town, the train station, and trendy cafes. Recently renovated, it features a cosy, sunlit lounge/dining area with a study corner and ample storage. The kitchen serves as the heart of the home, connecting seamlessly to a family living space and warmed by a slow combustion log fire. Step outside to a covered outdoor entertaining area, leading to a newly constructed studio apartment complete with an en-suite and full-sized kitchen, discretely positioned behind a spacious two-car garage with roller doors. With such proximity to amenities, you may find that owning a car is hardly necessary! Features include; Central gas heating | Slow combustion wood heater | Air conditioning Timber flooring Engineered stone kitchen bench | Island bench with pendant lighting Integrated Miele Dishwasher SMEG pyrolytic wall oven | SMEG Induction stove Hidden laundry Renovated bathrooms, one with bath tub Covered outdoor entertaining area | Gas point for the BBQ Electric gates Parking for 6 cars on premises Walking distance to Mittagong town centre and train station
