Experience the understated charm of 58 William Street-a timeless residence atop Buderim, just a leisurely stroll from Buderim Village. This classic Buderim farmers cottage, set on a generous 1059m2 allotment, emanates a warm allure and stunning views of the hinterland. Explore the alluring possibility of acquiring the neighbouring property at 56 William Street, unlocking not only additional space but also expanding your opportunities. This presents a unique chance to own two substantial Buderim blocks adjacent to each other, marking a rare and advantageous investment opportunity! Ascend the timber stairs to find three bedrooms, a large kitchen with a corner bench for casual meals, a modern bathroom, and a spacious living room featuring a wood stove fireplace-all embraced by polished wooden floors. Step outside to a spacious decking area offering serene views of the Blackall Range. On the lower level, a versatile multipurpose room awaits, along with a separate laundry and toilet, plus a carport for a single vehicle. The property enjoys multiple fruit trees, large flat sections of grass, all in complete privacy. Properties like this, with a timeless appeal, are a rare find. Whether you choose to preserve the existing character through renovation or start fresh with a new build, the potential is yours to explore. Rare gems like this are a scarce find. Expressions of interest need to be in no later than 5pm on Friday December 22, if not sold prior. For additional details or to arrange a viewing, reach out to Brodie Rodgers today!.
