Nestled in the trees of Elizabeth Town, 5862 Bass Highway presents an opportunity for investors, families, and retirees seeking the quintessential Tasmanian lifestyle. This property encompasses a generous 1.58 hectares of land, offering an idyllic country backdrop for those desiring space and tranquillity. The property boasts a solid brick family home that comprises four well-proportioned bedrooms and a functional bathroom, catering comfortably to family living. The interior exudes a warm and inviting atmosphere, presenting a blank canvas for the new owners to impart their own style and flair. The large land parcel surrounding the home offers endless possibilities – from establishing your very own hobby farm, to creating magnificent gardens, or simply relishing the ample space for children and pets to roam free. It's a safe and secure haven where one can enjoy the simpler pleasures of country life. With multiple parking spaces, vehicle storage is effortless, ensuring a practical solution for families with multiple cars or for those expecting guests. The house is a treasure trove of potential, making it an ideal first home to make your mark on, or an astute investment property to add to your portfolio. Prospective buyers will appreciate the strong foundation and good bones of the home, providing an opportunity to modernise and enhance the property's value over time. Whether you're looking to settle into a comfortable family life or capitalise on a savvy investment, 5862 Bass Highway is a prospect not to be overlooked. Council rates: $271 p/q approx.
