Discover the perfect blend of private village living and convenience at 58A Ebor Street, Ebor. Tucked away on a spacious 2023 sqm block of land, this property is set back off the main road, providing a peaceful setting for you to complete the existing shed and call home. As you make your way down the battle axe entry, you'll immediately appreciate this property's position and peacefulness. The expansive block presents endless possibilities, including a designated vegetable patch where you can indulge your green thumb and cultivate your own organic produce. Nestled in the back corner of the property, an older shed awaits, ready to be transformed into an animal shelter or a versatile storage space. Imagine the possibilities! A convenient chicken run also allows you to embrace the joys of farm-fresh eggs and sustainable living. Two water tanks ready to be connected are also a feature. Completing the package is a charming colourbond barn-style shed, built to the internal framing stage and waiting for you to complete the build and add your personal touches. Whether you envision it as your new home, a workshop or a studio, this versatile structure is ready to accommodate your needs. Despite its seclusion, 58A Ebor Street offers convenient access to nearby towns and attractions. Located approximately 30 minutes away from Dorrigo, an hour from Armidale, and just an hour and a half from Coffs Harbour, you'll enjoy the perfect balance of rural village living and urban convenience. Explore the surrounding areas, from the majestic Ebor Falls to the delightful Fusspots Cafe and indulge in the plentiful trout fishing streams that make Ebor a favourite destination for both tourists and locals alike. Don't miss this opportunity to embrace the peaceful village lifestyle you've always dreamed of. Find solace in the tranquil beauty that is Ebor.
