This incredible property has so much on offer. Positioned within walking distance from all New Norfolk has to offer, this delightful three-bedroom home will suit a wide range of purchasers and has an instant at home feel the minute you walk through the door. Situated on a large block offering potential for subdivision (STCA) or a wonderful large yard for the kids. Featuring huge bedrooms and a fantastic floor plan, this one is sure to impress. A huge living area offering a wood heater and heat pump for your convenience, with lovely colour schemes throughout. The bathroom has just been completely renovated and finished to a high standard. Beautifully designed with a separate shower and bath. The laundry is also a colossal size offering ample storage. The kitchen is large with ample bench and cupboard space. This really is a beautiful home. Be prepared to fall in love. In addition, there is a garage, beautiful street appeal and a fabulous whilst convenient location. Properties of this standard and price certainly do not last long. So call today for further information or to book your private inspection.
