Welcome to this charming property offering a perfect blend of comfort and potential. Positioned just moments away from schools, supermarkets and the center of town. Nestled on an expansive block, the property holds immense promise with the potential for subdivision (STCA), the opportunity to enter into the property market, a great investment opportunity or a large block to build your dream home. This cozy large two-bedroom home comes with the added benefit of a study or potential third bedroom. The central bathroom showing a bath, shower and single vanity. The heart of the home is its spacious open kitchen and large front living area, making it an ideal space for both relaxation and entertainment. Laundry located at the rear of the property and heating/cooling at the property presents a gas heater in the front living space, split system and ceiling fans throughout. There is so much to be unlocked at this property and at a very strong price point. Contact Ray White Benalla today to book an inspection.
