Crafted to cater to the diverse needs of the growing family, this expansive 5-bedroom residence has undergone a meticulous transformation, resulting in an exquisite living space perfect for new home-buyers in search of architectural elegance, contemporary luxury, and unbridled outdoor space. An open layout stretches from its formal to casual living spaces across timber hybrid floors, flowing effortlessly through a galley-style kitchen and dining hall under Velux skylights. Grass and Blum cabinetry surrounds top-quality appliances and LED feature lighting, elevating your gourmet experiences to a level transcending all prior expectations. Dual sets of sliding doors lure you onto the covered terrace and sun-kissed paved patio, offering the perfect setting for alfresco gatherings, complete with a built-in BBQ and lush, freshly-laid turf for the kids to run amok. The upper level is dedicated to parental relaxation, with a third living space featuring a home office/kitchenette, separate from the main bedroom with its substantial fitted dressing room and twin-vanity ensuite. Four additional robed bedrooms sit around a matching twin-vanity bathroom, leading a features list longer than most, including multi-zoned refrigerated heating and cooling, solar power, camera security, a ducted vacuum system, and a single garage with through access. This home is more than just a house - it's a lifestyle upgrade - moments from shopping centres, buses, parklands and revered schooling options.
