A captivating period façade introduces this instantly appealing period home, set on a 670m² and positioned to make the most of inner-city living. It would be hard to find a location more conducive to lifestyle enjoyment. Bask in all the period charm this 1920's home has to offer. As you enter the residence from the white picket fence, an enchanting verandah behind timber lattice work creates a welcoming sense of warmth as the home flows through French doors to an open-plan living zone rich in period character including high ceilings, ornate plaster ceilings, VJ walls, leadlight windows, fireplace, and polished timber floorboards. Polished timber floorboards flow through to a generous living room with an open fireplace, a bright well-appointed gourmet kitchen and sundrenched dining area complete with bay window. Each of the four bedrooms continue to pay homage to the era of the home, while the master suite is generous in size and features a bay window and French doors to the front deck. The family bathroom features an eye-catching traditional bathtub and large shower and has been elegantly designed to capture both traditional and modern charm. Step outside and a North-facing alfresco deck is the perfect space for entertaining. Overall, features of this property include:- Fantastic kitchen with great amount of bench space and storage- Open living and dining areas with fireplace - 4 bedrooms - Third bedroom could easily be used as home office- Modern family bathroom with separate bath and shower- Second toilet for convenience- Huge amount of storage downstairs- Polished timber floorboards throughout- Timber deck for alfresco entertaining- Large 670 m² block in NewtownRealWay Property Partners is proud to present 59 Gostwyck Street, Newtown to the market.
